

steamboat films

From Sherwood to Hollywood...

ROBINHOOD

A 52' DOCUMENTARY

DIRECTED BY VINCENT AMOUROUX

WRITTEN BY JEAN DEMERLIAC

AFTER 700 YEARS, ROBIN HOOD IS STILL VERY MUCH ALIVE !

History has made a timeless hero out of Robin Hood.

Many remember him as the man with a feathered, pointy hat and a trusty bow and arrow who would steal from the rich to give to the poor with the help of his merry men. Yet this is only one of the many different Robin Hoods who came to be over the years. After starting out as a modest and sometimes shady fiction hero, Robin Hood rapidly left his Sherwood Forest behind and climbed his way to stardom in Hollywood.

In this documentary, the narrator, Far Tuck, Robin Hood's faithful companion, will take us through 700 years of history. Through his testimony, we will follow this kitsch prince of the Middle Ages along his wild adventures, which will be livened up with short fiction sequences and actual movies footage.

From cheesy adventure flicks to big budget Hollywood films, Robin Hood makes his rise and fall in the often harsh world of show business. The epitome of Robin Hoods will accompany us on this fascinating journey; he will represent all his brothers as he takes us along the ride. Today, Robin is looking at yet new horizons as he is constantly referred to in the press and in political life...

7, rue Lacharrière - 75011 Paris - France
Tel: 33(0) 143 38 40 00 - Fax: 33(0) 143 55 20 81
prod@steamboatfilms.com
www.steamboatfilms.com